YLC Wednesday at the Square Receives Offbeat Magazine Community Music Award
Award Honors Organizations That Promote Music Through Community Events

(New Orleans, LA) – The Young Leadership Council’s “YLC Wednesday at the Square” concert series has received the Community Music Award from Offbeat Magazine. The community music award honors non-music related organizations that showcase music and musicians in a community event.

YLC Wednesday at the Square will begin on Wednesday, March 14, and run every Wednesday through June 30, 2012. The popular concert series will have new extended hours, running from 5:00–8:00 p.m. each Wednesday. Musical talent for the concerts will be released in February.

Sponsorships and Hospitality Tent Packages are available. Those interested can contact Amy Collins at the Young Leadership Council at (504) 585-1500 for more information.

YLC Wednesday at the Square serves as a fundraiser of the Young Leadership Council. The Young Leadership Council is a non-profit, non-partisan civic organization created to develop leadership through community projects. Through volunteer-created community projects, the YLC recruits and retains young professionals to New Orleans, creating a positive impact on the quality of life in the region. The oldest, independent YPO (young professionals' organization) in the country, the YLC has raised more than $25 million to support community projects in and around the New Orleans area since 1986.
