Young Leadership Council Participates in Artfully AWARE at NOMA
Board President and VP of Membership to Speak

(New Orleans, LA) – The Young Leadership Council is proud to be a supporter of Artfully AWARE at the New Orleans Museum of Art. At 5:00 p.m. on Friday, February 3, Artfully AWARE will take over the New Orleans Museum of Art for an evening event showcasing the rich diversity of artistic talent in New Orleans and around the world. Artfully AWARE seeks to inspire individuals to recognize their power to promote positive change in the community.

Alyssa Wenck, YLC Board President, and Kelley Bagayoko, Vice President of Membership will speak on the role the YLC has in inspiring young professionals to promote positive change in the New Orleans community through community projects that promote leadership development.

YLC Wednesday at the Square serves as a fundraiser of the Young Leadership Council. The Young Leadership Council is a non-profit, non-partisan civic organization created to develop leadership through community projects. Through volunteer-created community projects, the YLC recruits and retains young professionals to New Orleans, creating a positive impact on the quality of life in the region. The oldest, independent YPO (young professionals' organization) in the country, the YLC has raised more than $25 million to support community projects in and around the New Orleans area since 1986.
