Today's YLC Wednesday at the Square concert canceled due to inclement weather

New Orleans, LA (April 3, 2013) - The Young Leadership Council has cancelled its YLC Wednesday at the Square concert today at Lafayette Square due to inclement weather moving through the metro area.

"While we usually have a 'rain or shine' policy for the concerts, today's weather has a chance to be severe enough that we have canceled so that we do not endanger any of our set up crew members, our vendors, or our guests," said Richard Pavlick, YLC Board President.

A make-up concert featuring Irvin Mayfield and the Jazz Playhouse Revue has been scheduled for Wednesday, May 29 to replace today's concert. YLC Wednesday at the Square will resume next week with The Mother Hips and John Roniger.

The Young Leadership Council is a non-profit, non-partisan civic organization created to develop leadership through community projects. Through volunteer-created community projects, the YLC recruits and retains young professionals to New Orleans, creating a positive impact on the quality of life in the region. The oldest, independent YPO (young professionals' organization) in the country, the YLC has raised more than $25 million to support community projects in and around the New Orleans area since 1986.
