June 6th YLC Wednesday at the Square Concert Planned to Replace Canceled Date

New Orleans, LA (April 25, 2012): The Young Leadership Council (YLC) will have an extra YLC Wednesday at the Square concert on June 6, 2012 to make up for the concert the organization cancelled in April due to severe weather. The concert will feature Jeremy Davenport as headliner and Gravy as opener. In turn, the Dirty Dozen Brass Band will headline the May 16 concert, which Jeremy Davenport was originally scheduled to play. Breton Sound will open for Dirty Dozen Brass Band.

May 16 Concert

Opener: Breton Sound <http://www.thebretonsound.com>

Headliner: Dirty Dozen Brass Band www.dirtydozenbrassband.com

This seven-member ensemble has revitalized the brass band in New Orleans and around the world touring in the U.S. and in over 30 other countries on five continents

June 6 Concert

Opener: Gravy <http://www.gravymusic.com/>

Headliner: Jeremy Davenport <http://jeremydavenport.com>

With his original lyrics and music, Jeremy Davenport fuses his unique style and mood of storytelling creating a feeling reminiscent of the time when Jazz was at its peak of popularity.

The Young Leadership Council is a non-profit, non-partisan civic organization created to develop leadership through community projects. Through volunteer-created community projects, the YLC recruits and retains young professionals to New Orleans, creating a positive impact on the quality of life in the region. The oldest, independent YPO (young professionals' organization) in the country, the YLC has raised more than $25 million to support community projects in and around the New Orleans area since 1986.
