

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:
Bradley Charlesworth
(o) 504.324.4242 | (c) 504.442.2893
bradley@gambelpr.com

MEDIA ADVISORYPRESS CONFERENCE**

Young Leadership Council commemorates improvements to the New Orleans Terminal Railroad Bridge

Mayor Mitch Landrieu dedicates bridge as gateway to the City to welcome Super Bowl XLVII guests

- WHO: Mayor Mitch Landrieu
Young Leadership Council (YLC)
Louisiana Department of Transportation and Development (DOTD)
Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee
- WHAT: Commemoration of improvements to the New Orleans Terminal Railroad Bridge, extending across Interstate 10 at the Jefferson/Orleans Parish line
- WHEN: Tuesday, January 29, 2013
9:00 a.m.
- WHERE: Lake Lawn Park Cemetery
Lawn in front of Mausoleum
New Orleans, LA
- WHY: Just in time for Super Bowl XLVII, month-long improvements to the train trestle extending across Interstate 10 have been completed by YLC and Louisiana DOTD. The cleaned and painted bridge—adorned with vinyl wraps featuring YLC’s “Proud To Call It Home” slogan, the seal of the City of New Orleans, and the logo of the Super Bowl 2013 Host Committee—will serve as the gateway to New Orleans for visitors to the tenth Super Bowl to be hosted by the city.

For more information on YLC, please visit www.ylcnola.org.

Please note: A map to the location is attached

The Young Leadership Council is a non-profit, non-partisan civic organization created to develop leadership through community projects. Through volunteer-created community projects, the YLC recruits and retains young professionals to New Orleans, creating a positive impact on the quality of life in the region. The oldest, independent YPO (young professionals' organization) in the country, the YLC has raised more than $25 million to support community projects in and around the New Orleans area since 1986.

###