Young Leadership Council announced Food Vendors for 15th annual YLC Wednesday at the Square

Café Adelaide, Grand Isle Restaurant, and Squeal are among vendors at this year's concert series

NEW ORLEANS – Today, Young Leadership Council (YLC) announced the food vendor lineup for its 15th annual YLC Wednesday at the Square concert series, which officially kicks off on Wednesday, March 19 at 5:00 p.m.

The 12-week concert series takes place in downtown New Orleans at Lafayette Square (between Camp Street and St. Charles Avenue, directly across from Gallier Hall) each Wednesday from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m., beginning on March 19 and running through June 4.

Food Vendors that will be featured during the 2014 season are: Café Adelaide, Convi Collective Catering by Eiffel, Cook Me Something Mister, Crêpes à la Cart, Dreamy Weenies, Grand Isle Restaurant, Guideaux's Food Truck & Catering, Lucy's Retired Surfers Bar and Restaurant, Martin Wine Cellar, Ms. Linda The Yakamein Lady, Plum St. Snoballs, Salú Bistro and Bar, Saucy's, Squeal, and Theo's Neighborhood Pizza.

"YLC Wednesday at the Square is known for the variety of food available on the Square, and this year's vendors are no exception," said YLC Executive Director Curry W. Smith. "All food and beverage sold on the Square supports the YLC's work in our community, so there is no easier way to give back than enjoy some of this delicious food."

This year's concerts are presented by the New Orleans Saints, returning once again as the title sponsor for the series. Other sponsors for the series include Republic National Distributing Company, Abita Brewing Company, Bellwether Technology Corporation,

Dow, and the Downtown Development District. Sponsorship opportunities, including private hospitality tents, are currently available for the 2014 concert series. Please contact Juliana Wilkins at juliana@ylnola.org for more information.
